

National honour

Bobin company the Fodder Factory, has been selected to participate in a showcase of Australian Technology in the lead-up to the Olympics.

The company will be promoting its 'drought breaker' food processing plant which uses a water tank and green algae to grow up to one tonne of livestock feed a day.